DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Krim (US Patent Application Publication No. US 2002/0072925 A1).

Regarding to claim 1, Krim discloses a method of celebrating a person's life by attendees at a funeral after the person's death, comprising, causing the person, while alive, to create a message presentation that would welcome the attendee to the person's funeral and include personal comments to the attendee in a generally uplifting sense about the occasion of the funeral [..the person, may have a digital video camera or microphone so that the person may communicate with those at the live funeral, or may provide a prerecorded message, or may type words that will be shared with the live participants through an instant messaging service; see page 5, par. 0063-0064], storing the message presentation with instructions that the message presentation be played at the person's funeral [..a person with a number of options for specifying delivery of messages, graphics, or any other computer-storable content to designated recipients after the person has died; see page 1, par. 0009-0010], and publicly playing the message presentation at the person's funeral for the attendees at the funeral to see and hear [..other messages, to be sent at death, may include friends, family, etc. to be notified of the member's death and funeral; see page 2, par. 0028-0033].

Regarding to claim 2, Krim discloses wherein the message presentation is projected on a screen [..the member may provide clip art, video or audio clips to be included in one or more of his messages. For instance, the Message Center screen; see page 3, par. 0037-0038 and figure 5a].

Regarding to claim 3, Krim discloses wherein the message presentation is an audio presentation [..CD ROM; see page4, par. 0051-0052].

Regarding to claim 4, Krim discloses wherein the message presentation is a combination video-type and audio presentation [..audio or video clip to be in his message; see page3, par. 0037-0038 and figures 4a-4c]

Regarding to claim 5, Krim discloses wherein the message presentation is an audio/video presentation [..survivors of the deceased may establish an internet hookup and a digital video camera at the funeral, to make the proceedings available to any interested person over the internet; see page4, par. 0063-0064].

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
4. The patent to Evans discloses an apparatus located in a funeral establishment for displaying information about a deceased and patent application publication to Durham discloses a method of providing funeral products and services.
